

Love I Obey

- What If A Day (Attributed to Thomas Campion, 1606)
- The Bob of Dumblane in Orpheus Caledonius (set to music by William Thomson, 1733)
- Bruton Town
(Story of Isabella and the Pot of Basil, Boccaccio, adapted from the Work of Cecil J. Sharp)
- Hush you bye (From the Work of Alan Lomax)
- I Once Loved a Lass (Scottish Ballad, Original Text from „The Forlorn Lover“ c. 1670)
- Wagoner's Lad (Tragic Love Ballad c. 1850–75)
- Jack Hall (Somerset Folk Song)
- O Death (Tudor-Era Song, Attributed to Anne Boleyn, 1536)
- Pastime (Henry VIII.)
- Echoes (Bruno Helstroffer)/A Hymn to the Evening (Poem by Phillis Wheatley)
- An Evening Hymn (Henry Purcell 1659–1695)
- Geordie (American Mountain Song, from Anglo-Irish Traditional Folk)
- Scots Songs in Orpheus Caledonius (set to music by William Thomson, 1733)
- Poor Wayfaring Stranger (Folksong from early 19th century)
- Love I Obey (William Lawes 1602–1645)